In making this considerable increase the items were an extra amount of $5,500 for the salaries of the school teachers under town consolidation of schools, $12,000 for paying the term fees for town pupils at the Norwich Free Academy, $1,900 for the use in accepting as a public highway a street leading to the American Thermos Bottle company's new plant, a $1,200 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the increase in the salary of the assessors, a $500 increase in the salary of the increase appear over.

Mr. Beckley argued for equal pay pay now for equal grades, saying that the present plan was unfair and it would take a long time for an efficiency of the superintendent.

Contest on School Matters The only real contest in the meeting tee by the sum of $8,500 in the item of salaries. This was for the purpose of equalizing salaries of teachers so that teachers in all parts of the town in teachers in all paris of the town in the same grade should be paid the same amount, and the fight for this was led by Thomas H. Beckley, Henry D. Johnson, Joseph D. Pfeiffer and Henry G. Peck, all prominent in West Chelsea school matters before town consolidation of schools.

Taking a small pocketbook with a chain and locket the man then made his escape. Mr. Ouelette returned home about 11.26 and found Mrs. Ouelette in her unconscious condition. He worked over her until 1.36 of clock when she revived and told him what had happened. Mr. Ouelette With this fight over, many left the hall at this point. The other items on the school budget were voted as follows: Fuel, supplies and incidentals, $15,855.27; interest, $5,357.60; repairs, $14,000; insurance, $1,294.21; evening school, $800; total, $125,807.08. on taxation matters and records, and he felt sure the town would benefit by better and modern system.

Mr. Murphy was applauded, and S. S. Thresher asked what remedy Mr. Murphy would suggest. The latter answered that they ought to have about $1,200 more. The sum of $3,500 was voted appropriated.

Other amounts as estimated were ap-propriated as follows: Sinking fund, $8,500; tuberculosis patients, $2,000; probate district expenses, $300; voting machines and extras, $6,000; street lighting, $800; Yantic Steam Fire Engine Co., $400. TAFTVILLE

Gave Reception to Friends. by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pointkowski in their newly furnished home, 66 Schoool street. Norwich, on their return from their honeymoon trip to Maine. There were many vocal selections and instrumental music rendered by those present. Some Sweet Day was splendidly rendered by Miss Bertha Kruck and Romeo Paquette, who were assisted on the plano by Miss Victoria Gladue. Leonard Gloskowski sang When I Came Home from Broadway, and Miss Minnie Kruck rendered effectively Let Me Pe Your Sweetway, and Miss Minnie Kruck rendered effectively Let Me Be Your Sweetheart, and Edward Pointkowski recited with expression Off Again, On Again, Finnegan, After the musical part of the day the invited guests sat down to a fine dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Pointkowski, Mrs. Marie Kruck being chef. After a late hour the guests gave a rising vote of thanks to the newly married counts.

Saturday afternoon the Taftville Speed Boys journeyed by trolley to Jewett City, where they defeated the home team by a score of 6-0. Sensational forward passes figured throughout the game, which was fast and interesting. The game was played in eight minute quarters. The only points scored were by the T. S. R. in the second quarter, when DeCelles made a forward pass to Gley. The lineups follows.
